Lt. Col. Hinckley Makes Flying Visit

Lt. Col. Frank O. Hinckley, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. V. Hinckley, 24103 Narbonne Ave., paid a surprise visit at the home of his parents on Thanksgiving Day, flying here on a routine mission from his Ellington Air Force Base, Tex., station for the 24-hour visit.

A graduate of Narbonne High School and former manager of Hinckley's Market in Lomita, the Air Force officer flew into San Bernardino early Thanksgiving morning, spent the day with his parents and family here, and then flew back to Texas the following morning.
 Lt. Col. Hinckley, who has made a career in the Air Force, spent the summer as commander of the base's Summer Training Unit in which 400 men representing 57 colleges and universities all over the United States received a four-week Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps training program.
 During his student days at Narbonne, Hinckley was editor of the high school's student newspaper.
 Colonel Hinckley's wife and two children were not able to make the Thanksgiving Day trip, but remained in Houston, where they make their home.

MAKES FLYING VISIT . . . Lt. Col. Frank O. Hinckley, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. V. Hinckley, 24103 Narbonne Ave., made a flying visit to the home of his parents for Thanksgiving. He is stationed with the Air Force at Ellington Air Force Base, Texas.

Local Boy, Girl Scouts Will Perform for Community Sing
 By ALICE PALCZEWSKI DA 6-0788

The Lomita-Harbor City Community Sing will have an especially good local talent tomorrow. Members of the Intermediate Girl Scouts, Troop 1985, and Boy Scouts from various local troops will put on the program.

The program will include the singing of "He" by Troop 1585, followed by a tap dance by Donna Dobson. There will be two accordion numbers, one by Janet McGuire and the other by Michael Travers. Jim Roberts will render a piano solo. For the finale the Whirls and Twirls will perform two square dances and a round dance.

The show is being put on by the boys and girls to fulfill one of the requirements towards their Folk Dancers badge.

The community singing time has been increased to an hour following the program which starts at 7:30 p.m. in the Harbor City Elementary School. Door prizes are given away, and birthdays and anniversaries are honored.

In keeping with the holiday season, tickets for a turkey are being given away at each sing. The turkey will be awarded the Friday before Christmas. Youngsters must be with their parents in order to receive a turkey ticket.

The ladies of St. Anthony's of St. Margaret Mary's Church will sponsor a food sale on Saturday, Dec. 1, at the Central Market, 2214 W. Lomita Blvd., Lomita.

There will be a wide variety of home cooked foods offered for sale.

Mrs. Mary Frisino, prefect of the guild, will be in charge.

The Lomita Property Owners and Registered Voters have endorsed the organization by which sidewalks can be had for $4.10 per foot, with an additional 60 cents per square foot for driveway aprons. Through the efforts of L. Steinbach, arrangements can be made for the curb and gutter if individuals would want to put the sidewalk in later on.

The association also recommends that the boundaries for incorporation be kept on file to protect the area against any fringe area annexation possibilities.

The group will hold its next meeting on Dec. 18, at 8 p.m., in the home of George Sands, 2119 W. 250th St.
